Respite Care

The much-needed break you and your loved one deserves

As an independent Christian charity, HammondCare champions life.

Short-term respite care in a community setting

Lucinda Cottage offers a person living with dementia short-term overnight care in a home-like and comfortable environment, allowing carers to take a break from their usual caring roles. Lucinda Cottage's welcoming model of care enables the flexibility to offer creative care that is tailored to each guest's interests and needs.

What can you expect at Lucinda Cottage?

Lucinda Cottage is a home like environment where guests are treated as individuals. Guests can choose to relax or participate in activities and care is tailored to individual needs. Nutritious home cooked meals are also served throughout the day.

How can I access respite through the Cottage?

This service is available to people living with dementia and frail older people, living in the Northern Sydney area. If you are a primary carer enquiring into costs, eligibility and availability, you can directly contact the Lucinda Cottage Manager.
